Greenway Conservancy Board Announces Four New Members

December 19, 2018 – BOSTON, MA – The Rose Kennedy Greenway Conservancy, the non-profit responsible for the management and care of The Greenway, is excited to announce the election of four new members to its Board of Directors beginning January 1, 2019: Rosalind Gorin, President and Managing Principal of HN Gorin; Carmine Guarino, Senior Vice President of Retail Banking for Berkshire Bank; Deniz Johnson, Founder and Principal at Pera-Partners; and Brad Snyder, Executive Manager Director for the Tiger Capital Group.

“We are thrilled to welcome such a talented group to serve on our volunteer Board,” said Jim Kalustian, Chair of the Greenway Conservancy Board. “Their diverse knowledge and experience, passion for The Greenway, and commitment to service will help us continue to bring the Conservancy and The Greenway to greater heights”

At its December 11, 2018 meeting, the Greenway Conservancy Board of Directors welcomed:

Rosalind Gorin, President & CEO, HN Gorin

Rosalind is the third generation to lead her family’s 100-year-old real estate development company with holdings that include business, industrial, and residential holdings. She serves on the board of the Jewish Arts Collaborative, Harvard University Hillel, and as a Trustee of the Urban Land Institute. Rosalind was nominated by the Governor’s Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs.

Carmine Guarino, Senior Vice President of Retail Banking for Berkshire Bank

Carmine Guarino is a lifelong resident of Boston’s North End and very active in the Boston community. He is an elected member of the North End/Waterfront Neighborhood Council and COMITES, a board member of Operation ABLE, UMass ELP/Center for Collaborative Leadership, the Dante Alighieri Cultural Center in Cambridge, and St. Leonard Parish Finance Council. He has been in banking for 35 years and is currently Senior Vice President of Retail Banking for Berkshire Bank at 60 State St. in Boston. Carmine was nominated by the North End/Waterfront Neighborhood Council.

Deniz Johnson, Founder and Principal at Pera-Partners

Deniz Johnson is the founder and principal at Pera-Partners, a management consulting company specializing in FinTech startup advisory, strategy implementation, FinTech adoption, business transformation and product/program/project management in financial services and software. Previously, Johnson was a Managing Director at State Street Corporation’s Alternative Investment Solutions (AIS) group. As an active resident of the Leather District, Deniz was nominated by the Leather District Neighborhood Association.
