Fall Movie Series: Throwback Thursdays! PRESENTED BY THE GREENWAY BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT

October 8, 15, 22, and 29 | Starting at sunset (6:30 PM) | Wharf District (Between Milk Street and India Street)

This fall, it's all about the 90s! We're ringing in sweater weather with four films that are perfect for cozy autumn evenings against the city skyline. Themed candy and snacks will be available to purchase onsite as well as food from one of our food trucks. Plus, join us before each showing for a free family-friendly activity, beginning at 5:30 PM, available while supplies last. Our 2026 Fall Movie Series is also presented in partnership with the City of Boston Office of Tourism, Sports, and Entertainment.

- October 8: The Parent Trap (1998)
 - Activity: Friendship Bracelets and Photo Frame Decorating
- October 15: Jumanji (1995)
 - Activity: Bird House Decorating
- October 22: 10 Things I Hate About You (1999)
 - Activity: Notebook Decorating
- October 29: Casper (1995)
 - Activity: Pumpkin Decorating

From Muralismo to "The Midnight Ride" PRESENTED BY BOSTON250

October 15 | 5:30 to 7:30 PM | Dewey Square

Join us to hear our 2026 Dewey Square muralist, Rixy, in conversation with projection artist Pamela Hersch. Together they'll explore the relationship between large-scale public murals and thriving democracies. Enjoy music from DJ Oyade and live band FM Collective, grab a bite from our food trucks, and be one of the first to view the new illumination of The Midnight Ride. This event will kick off a 6-month nightly projection onto Rixy's The Midnight Ride, bringing the mural to life in Downtown Boston.

"From Muralismo to 'The Midnight Ride'" is funded by Boston 250, a public-private partnership between the City of Boston and private sector partners, including Meet Boston, State Street, The Boston Foundation, John Hancock, Eastern Bank, Liberty Mutual, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts, Vertex Pharmaceuticals, and PNC Bank. Support for the Dewey Square Mural projectors is generously provided by the Lynch Foundation and Laura Connors and Brian O'Connell.

"As Long as the Sun Lasts": Vivian Tran and An Hà in Conversation

October 27 | 5:30 to 7:30 PM | Pao Arts Center

Join artists Vivian Tran and An Hà at Pao Arts Center for a conversation about the artists' individual practices as well as the work of their curatorial and arts programming collective, Copenger. The talk will be followed by a walk to Chin Park and an artist-led tour of Tran's because you are the sun; because you are the thread.
